

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Canada is north of the United States of America. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. Africa is not divided into states. Canada is divided into provinces.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

3 Mexico is a country that is south of the United States. The Mexican people speak Spanish. There is a river between Mexico and the United States. The river is called the Rio Grande.

This paragraph makes sense.

2 1. Canada is north of the United States of America. 2. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. 3. Africa is not divided into states. 4. Canada is divided into provinces.

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

4 Mexico is a country that is south of the United States. Softball can be a fun sport. There is a river between Mexico and the United States. The river is called the Rio Grande.

This paragraph makes sense.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Enjoy going to football games. That word is called the noun.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

8 1. Enjoy going to football games. 2. That word is called the noun. 3. That word is called the noun. 4. That word is called the noun.

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

9 Complete sentences have two parts. They are the subject and the predicate. The predicate of the sentence is the action or doing part of the sentence. An important word in the predicate is the verb.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

10 Complete sentences have two parts. They are the subject and the predicate. The predicate of the sentence is the action or doing part of the sentence. Math is so interesting.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true
B false

ANSWER KEY

Canada is north of the United States of America. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. Africa is not divided into states. Canada is divided into provinces.

(b)

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

1. Canada is north of the United States of America. 2. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. 3. Africa is not divided into states. 4. Canada is divided into provinces.

(c)

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

Mexico is a country that is south of the United States. The Mexican people speak Spanish. There is a river between Mexico and the United States. The river is called the Rio Grande.

(a)

This paragraph makes sense.

Mexico is a country that is south of the United States. Softball can be a fun sport. There is a river between Mexico and the United States. The river is called the Rio Grande.

(b)

This paragraph makes sense.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

Complete sentences have two parts. They are the subject and the predicate. The predicate of the sentence is the action or doing part of the sentence. An important word in the predicate is the verb.

(a)

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

Complete sentences have two parts. They are the subject and the predicate. The predicate of the sentence is the action or doing part of the sentence. Math is so interesting.

(b)

This paragraph makes sense.

A true
B false