

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Combine these two sentences:
You could cut the lawn.
You could do nothing.

A You could cut the lawn or do nothing.
B You could cut the lawn but do nothing.
C You could cut the lawn and do nothing.
D Cut the lawn you could, do nothing.

2 Combine these two sentences:
Jade grinned at me. Mom grinned at me.

A Jade or Mom grinned at me.
B Jade and Mom grinned at me.
C Jade but Mom grinned at me.
D Jade grinned at me, Mom.

3 Combine these two sentences:
Jackie laughed loudly.
Jimmy laughed loudly.

A Jackie or Jimmy laughed loudly.
B Jackie laughed and Jimmy loudly.
C Jackie and Jimmy laughed loudly.

4 Combine these two sentences:
Frank brought cookies.
Fran brought cookies.

A Frank or Fran brought cookies.
B Frank but Fran brought cookies.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

6 I will drive the truck but the van.
C I will drive the truck or the van.
D I will drive the truck, the van.

A We can have spaghetti or tacos for supper.
B We can have spaghetti but tacos for supper.
C We can have spaghetti, tacos for supper.
D We can have spaghetti tacos for supper.

9 Combine these two sentences:
Would you like toast for breakfast?
Would you like waffles for breakfast?

A Would you like toast waffles for breakfast?
B Would you like toast but waffles for breakfast?
C Would you like or toast for breakfast?
D Would you like toast or waffles for breakfast?

10 Combine these two sentences:
Do your homework. Do not rush.

A Do your homework or rush.
B Do your homework, but do not rush.
C Do your homework and rush.
D Do your homework, rush.

ANSWER KEY

Combine these two sentences:

You could cut the lawn.
You could do nothing.

- A You could cut the lawn or do nothing.
- B You could cut the lawn but do nothing.
- C You could cut the lawn and do nothing.
- D Cut the lawn you could, do nothing.

(a)

Combine these two sentences:

Jade grinned at me. Mom grinned at me.

- A Jade or Mom grinned at me.
- B Jade and Mom grinned at me.
- C Jade but Mom grinned at me.
- D Jade grinned at me, Mom.

(b)

Combine these two sentences:

Jackie laughed loudly.
Jimmy laughed loudly.

- A Jackie or Jimmy laughed loudly.
- B Jackie laughed and Jimmy loudly.
- C Jackie and Jimmy laughed loudly.
- D Jackie laughed loudly and Jimmy

(c)

Combine these two sentences:

Frank brought cookies.
Fran brought cookies.

- A Frank or Fran brought cookies.
- B Frank but Fran brought cookies.
- C Frank, Fran brought cookies.

(d)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- D I will drive the truck, the van.

- A We can have spaghetti or tacos for supper.
- B We can have spaghetti but tacos for supper.
- C We can have spaghetti, tacos for supper.
- D We can have spaghetti tacos for supper.

Combine these two sentences:

Would you like toast for breakfast?
Would you like waffles for breakfast?

- A Would you like toast waffles for breakfast?
- B Would you like toast but waffles for breakfast?
- C Would you like or toast for breakfast?
- D Would you like toast or waffles for breakfast?

(d)

Combine these two sentences:

Do your homework. Do not rush.

- A Do your homework or rush.
- B Do your homework, but do not rush.
- C Do your homework and rush.
- D Do your homework, rush.

(b)