

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 We are moving to a new city. All our things are packed in boxes. The moving van is being loaded. I feel a little bit sad to be leaving. But I am excited about my new neighborhood.

- A Packed Boxes
- B Moving Day
- C The Sad Day
- D A New City

3 My room is a mess. I have piles of dirty clothes on the floor. My toys are scattered everywhere. My bed is not made. I lost my library book somewhere in here. Add a good supporting sentence.

- A Maybe I should clean my room.
- B My brother has a library book.

2 Our school is having a bake sale. We are raising money for hurricane victims. I am baking brownies. My friend is bringing cookies. Our teacher is making candy. What would be a good supporting detail?

- A The principal is singing a song.
- B The principal is making a cake.
- C The janitor will clean up.
- D A hurricane is brewing.

4 That movie was too scary for me! Children were locked in an attic. Something was knocking at their window. Screeching sounds could be heard below. Add a good supporting sentence.

- A Some movies are funny.
- B Mom said I should only watch PG movies.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 I need to buy a hat. It is such a windy day. Lucky for me I have mittens. I want to go to school.

8 I am excited about my birthday. I learned to make dinner. My father is the boss at work. It is time to go shopping.

9 The art teacher has a good idea for Earth Day. She has collected many pieces of junk. She wants us to use recyclables and the junk to make useful items. What is this article mostly about?

- A the junk collection
- B Useful items are nice.
- C the art teacher's idea
- D Throw junk away.

10 Third Grade by George Zapin
Look at me, I'm in grade three!
It's really great, so I'm never late.
It's just not fun, when school is done.

According to the poem, how does the author feel?

- A grumpy
- B joyful
- C tired
- D school

ANSWER KEY

We are moving to a new city. All our things are packed in boxes. The moving van is being loaded. I feel a little bit sad to be leaving. But I am excited about my new neighborhood.

(b)

Choose a title for this story.

- A Packed Boxes
- B Moving Day
- C The Sad Day
- D A New City

My room is a mess. I have piles of dirty clothes on the floor. My toys are scattered everywhere. My bed is not made. I lost my library book somewhere in here. Add a good supporting sentence.

(a)

- A Maybe I should clean my room.
- B My brother has a library book.
- C Do you have toys?
- D

Our school is having a bake sale. We are raising money for hurricane victims. I am baking brownies. My friend is bringing cookies. Our teacher is making candy. What would be a good supporting detail?

(b)

- A The principal is singing a song.
- B The principal is making a cake.
- C The janitor will clean up.
- D A hurricane is brewing.

That movie was too scary for me! Children were locked in an attic. Something was knocking at their window. Screaming sounds could be heard below. Add a good supporting sentence.

(b)

- A Some movies are funny.
- B Mom said I should only watch PG movies.
- C I like to scare my parents.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- B It is such a windy day.
- C Lucky for me I have mittens.
- D I want to go to school.

- A I am excited about my birthday.
- B I learned to make dinner.
- C My father is the boss at work.
- D It is time to go shopping.

The art teacher has a good idea for Earth Day. She has collected many pieces of junk. She wants us to use recyclables and the junk to make useful items. What is this article mostly about?

(c)

- A the junk collection
- B Useful items are nice.
- C the art teacher's idea
- D Throw junk away.

Third Grade by George Zapin

Look at me, I'm in grade three!
It's really great, so I'm never late.
It's just not fun, when school is done.

(b)

According to the poem, how does the author feel?

- A grumpy
- B joyful
- C tired
- D school