

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Combine these two sentences:
Mike likes to go to Tom's house.
Mike likes to go to Sam's house.

- A Mike likes to go to Tom's and Sam's houses.
- B Mike likes to go to Tom's but Sam's houses.
- C Mike likes to go to Tom's house but not Sam's.
- D Mike likes Tom, not Sam.

2 Combine these two sentences:
Allison likes to swim.
Becky likes to swim.

- A Allison likes to swim and Becky.
- B Allison or Becky likes to swim.
- C Allison and Becky like to swim.
- D Allison but Becky likes to swim.

3 Combine these two sentences:
Amy likes kickball.
Amy does not like football.

- A Amy likes kickball and football.
- B Amy likes kickball, but not football.

4 Combine these two sentences:
Kelly is nine years old.
Tim is nine years old.

- A Kelly is nine years old and Tim.
- B Kelly is nine years old but Tim.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

5 Nancy loves ice cream, but Diane.
Nancy and Diane love ice cream.
Nancy or Diane love ice cream.
Nancy loves ice cream, Diane loves ice cream.

- A Nancy loves ice cream, but Diane.
- B Nancy and Diane love ice cream.
- C Nancy or Diane love ice cream.
- D Nancy loves ice cream, Diane loves ice cream.

6 Nick plays cards with Leah but Dan.
Nick plays cards with Leah, Dan.
Nick and Leah play cards with Dan.
Nick plays cards with Leah and Dan.

- A Nick plays cards with Leah but Dan.
- B Nick plays cards with Leah, Dan.
- C Nick and Leah play cards with Dan.
- D Nick plays cards with Leah and Dan.

7 Combine these two sentences:
Kevin writes. Sally draws pictures.

- A Kevin and Sally write and draw pictures.
- B Kevin writes or Sally draws.
- C Kevin writes, but Sally draws pictures.
- D Kevin and Sally write but draw pictures.

8 Ashley plays the piano.
Brandon plays the piano.

- A Ashley and Brandon play the piano.
- B Ashley plays the piano, Brandon.
- C Ashley plays but Brandon plays the piano.
- D Ashley or Brandon play the piano.

ANSWER KEY

Combine these two sentences:

Mike likes to go to Tom's house.
Mike likes to go to Sam's house.

- A Mike likes to go to Tom's and Sam's houses.
- B Mike likes to go to Tom's but Sam's houses.
- C Mike likes to go to Tom's house but not Sam's.
- D Mike likes Tom, not Sam.

(a)

Combine these two sentences:

Allison likes to swim.
Becky likes to swim.

- A Allison likes to swim and Becky.
- B Allison or Becky likes to swim.
- C Allison and Becky like to swim.
- D Allison but Becky likes to swim.

(c)

Combine these two sentences:

Amy likes kickball.
Amy does not like football.

- A Amy likes kickball and football.
- B Amy likes kickball, but not football.
- C Amy likes kickball or not football.
- D Amy likes football.

(b)

Combine these two sentences:

Kelly is nine years old.
Tim is nine years old.

- A Kelly is nine years old and Tim.
- B Kelly is nine years old but Tim.
- C Kelly or Tim is nine years old.

(d)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- B Nancy and Diane love ice cream.
- C Nancy or Diane love ice cream.
- D Nancy loves ice cream, Diane loves ice cream.

- B Nick plays cards with Leah, Dan.
- C Nick and Leah play cards with Dan.
- D Nick plays cards with Leah and Dan.

Combine these two sentences:

Kevin writes. Sally draws pictures.

- A Kevin and Sally write and draw pictures.
- B Kevin writes or Sally draws.
- C Kevin writes, but Sally draws pictures.
- D Kevin and Sally write but draw pictures.

(c)

Combine these two sentences:

Ashley plays the piano.
Brandon plays the piano.

- A Ashley and Brandon play the piano.
- B Ashley plays the piano, Brandon.
- C Ashley plays but Brandon plays the piano.
- D Ashley or Brandon play the piano.

(a)