

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Fred consumed all the food in his lunchbox. He was so full he didn't want to eat anything else.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word consumed means?

- A looked at
- B threw away
- C ate
- D gave away

2 That guy must be extremely affluent. He is driving an expensive sports car and lives in a huge mansion on the golf course.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word affluent means?

- A nice
- B wealthy
- C poor
- D scared

3 Helen had a plethora of choices in the candy store. There were too many items to choose from.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word plethora means?

- A not many
- B colorful
- C few
- D many

4 A context clue might be in the same sentence, the sentence _____, or the sentence after the difficult word.

- A only
- B title
- C before

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

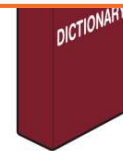

7

J
H
A d

A females
B athletes
C friends
D men

- A leave
- B hide
- C help define
- D cross out

9 Jane felt euphoric after winning the championship game. I have never seen her so happy.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word euphoric means?

- A happy
- B sad
- C tired
- D exhausted

10 Sometimes context clues are written as _____, meaning the sentence includes words that mean the same thing as the difficult word in the sentence.

- A antonyms
- B synonyms
- C syllables
- D steps

ANSWER KEY

Fred consumed all the food in his lunchbox. He was so full he didn't want to eat anything else.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word consumed means?

- A looked at
- B threw away
- C ate
- D gave away

(C)

That guy must be extremely affluent. He is driving an expensive sports car and lives in a huge mansion on the golf course.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word affluent means?

- A nice
- B wealthy
- C poor
- D scared

(b)

Helen had a plethora of choices in the candy store. There were too many items to choose from.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word plethora means?

- A not many
- B colorful
- C too many
- D

(C)

A context clue might be in the same sentence, the sentence _____, or the sentence after the difficult word.

- A only
- B title
- C before
- D heading

(C)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A
- B athletes
- C friends
- D men

- C help define
- D cross out

Jane felt euphoric after winning the championship game. I have never seen her so happy.

After looking at the context clues, what do you think the word euphoric means?

- A happy
- B sad
- C tired
- D exhausted

(a)

Sometimes context clues are written as _____, meaning the sentence includes words that mean the same thing as the difficult word in the sentence.

- A antonyms
- B synonyms
- C syllables
- D steps

(b)