

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Everyone was sitting quietly in the church. The organ music played as the girls walked down the aisle. Then my sister started to walk down the aisle and everyone stood up. She looked so beautiful in her white dress.

What event is the author attending?

- A Her sister's graduation
- B Her sister's wedding
- C Her sister's birthday party
- D Her sister's tennis match

2 Gina's stomach was getting bigger every day. The big day was almost here. Her husband had painted the new crib a lovely shade of blue. Soon the house would not be so quiet.

Gina is _____.

- A sleeping
- B eating too much
- C laughing
- D pregnant

3 Alanna was nervous on the first day of her new job. People told her what they wanted to eat. She made sure everyone was taken care of while they were there. She was doing well until she dropped her tray and food splattered everywhere.

Alanna is a _____.

4 Mark is a very quiet boy. He never says a word. He uses his hands to communicate. We need an interpreter in order to communicate with him.

You can infer that Mark is _____.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A happy
- B nervous
- C sad
- D tired

You can infer that _____.

- A Ray had been cutting the lawn
- B Ray liked mowing the lawn
- C Ray had a small yard
- D Ray watched his son mow the lawn

9

Beth always put her books away in alphabetical order. Her shoes were arranged by color. She can always find exactly what she needs when she needs it. Nothing is ever out of place in her room.

You can infer that _____.

- A Beth is lazy
- B Beth is quiet
- C Beth has colorful shoes
- D Beth is an organized person

10

Tara looked in the refrigerator and saw they were out of milk. She needed milk for the meal she was making for dinner. She grabbed her car keys and headed out the door.

You can infer from this paragraph that _____.

- A Tara was going to buy milk
- B Tara was going for a jog
- C Tara decided to go out for dinner
- D Tara didn't like milk

ANSWER KEY

Everyone was sitting quietly in the church. The organ music played as the girls walked down the aisle. Then my sister started to walk down the aisle and everyone stood up. She looked so beautiful in her white dress.

What event is the author attending?

- A Her sister's graduation
- B Her sister's wedding
- C Her sister's birthday party
- D Her sister's tennis match

(b)

Gina's stomach was getting bigger every day. The big day was almost here. Her husband had painted the new crib a lovely shade of blue. Soon the house would not be so quiet.

Gina is _____.

- A sleeping
- B eating too much
- C laughing
- D pregnant

(d)

Alanna was nervous on the first day of her new job. People told her what they wanted to eat. She made sure everyone was taken care of while they were there. She was doing well until she dropped her tray and food splattered everywhere.

Alanna is a _____.

- A teacher
- C waitress

Mark is a very quiet boy. He never says a word. He uses his hands to communicate. We need an interpreter in order to communicate with him.

You can infer that Mark is _____.

- A silly
- C shy

(b)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A happy
- B nervous
- C sad
- D tired

- A Ray had been cutting the lawn
- B Ray liked mowing the lawn
- C Ray had a small yard
- D Ray watched his son mow the lawn

Beth always put her books away in alphabetical order. Her shoes were arranged by color. She can always find exactly what she needs when she needs it. Nothing is ever out of place in her room.

You can infer that _____.

- A Beth is lazy
- B Beth is quiet
- C Beth has colorful shoes
- D Beth is an organized person

(d)

Tara looked in the refrigerator and saw they were out of milk. She needed milk for the meal she was making for dinner. She grabbed her car keys and headed out the door.

You can infer from this paragraph that _____.

- A Tara was going to buy milk
- B Tara was going for a jog
- C Tara decided to go out for dinner
- D Tara didn't like milk

(a)