

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Why do you think there should be no homework assigned on Friday nights?

This is a(n) _____ question.

- A opinion
- B inference
- C literal
- D factual

WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
4	5	6 NO Homework	7
11	12	13 NO Homework	14

2 Gina and John were eating pizza together in the restaurant. John accidentally spilled his drink all over Gina. Gina laughed and helped clean up the mess. Which is a literal question about the text?

- A Do you like eating pizza?
- B How did Gina feel about having drink spilled on her?
- C What were Gina and John eating?
- D How do you think John felt after spilling?

3 If you had to write a report about Florida, what recent experience could you use to help recall information when writing your report?

- A going to the store
- B playing at the park

4 Tim and John were having fun playing baseball in the backyard. Suddenly, Tim heard his mother's voice. He said goodbye to John and went inside his house. Why do you think Tim went inside?

- A It was cold.
- B It started to rain.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A opinion
- B inference
- C literal
- D confusing

- A This is an opinion question.
- B This is an inference question.
- C This is a literal question.
- D This is an evaluative question.

9 What do you think will happen next in the story?

This is a(n) _____ question.

- A opinion
- B inference
- C literal
- D factual

10 Which is an opinion question?

- A What is your last name?
- B What time is lunch?
- C Do you agree with what the speaker is saying?
- D Who is your Math teacher?

ANSWER KEY

Why do you think there should be no homework assigned on Friday nights?

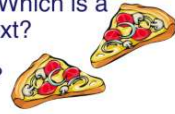

This is a(n) _____ question.

- A opinion
- B inference
- C literal
- D factual

WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
4	5	6 NO Homework	7
11	12	13 NO Homework	14

(a)

Gina and John were eating pizza together in the restaurant. John accidentally spilled his drink all over Gina. Gina laughed and helped clean up the mess. Which is a literal question about the text?

- A Do you like eating pizza?
- B How did Gina feel about having drink spilled on her?
- C What were Gina and John eating?
- D How do you think John felt after spilling?

(C)

If you had to write a report about Florida, what recent experience could you use to help recall information when writing your report?

- A going to the store
- B playing at the park
- C your family vacation to Florida

(C)

Tim and John were having fun playing baseball in the backyard. Suddenly, Tim heard his mother's voice. He said goodbye to John and went inside his house. Why do you think Tim went inside?

- A It was cold.
- B It started to rain.
- C His mom called for him to come in.

(C)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- B inference
- C literal
- D confusing

- A This is an opinion question.
- B This is an inference question.
- C This is a literal question.
- D This is an evaluative question.

What do you think will happen next in the story?

This is a(n) _____ question.

- A opinion
- B inference
- C literal
- D factual

(b)

Which is an opinion question?

- A What is your last name?
- B What time is lunch?
- C Do you agree with what the speaker is saying?
- D Who is your Math teacher?

(c)