

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which sentence is a comparison that uses vivid language?

- A My hair was messy.
- B My hair felt good.
- C My hair was dirty.
- D My hair was a rat's nest of tangles.

2 What vivid word could you use to replace the underlined word?

The old glove had been used many times.

- A new
- B weathered
- C sad
- D big

3 Vivid language makes stories _____!

- A boring
- B come alive
- C ordinary
- D dull

4 Choose the sentence that relates to the readers' sense of touch.

- A The sand sounded like rocks.
- B The sand felt like a hot blanket.
- C The sand was brown.
- D The sand tasted

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 E
r
t
y

A out
B part
C missing
D confused

- B The banana was rotten.
- C The banana was yellow.
- D The unknown fruit tasted like a banana.

9 What vivid word could you use to replace the underlined word?

The soup was very hot.

- A scalding
- B more
- C good
- D a lot

10 Choose the sentence that relates to the readers' sense of hearing.

- A The phone is for you.
- B The cell phone ring sounded like a hiccup.
- C I bought a new phone.
- D Do you have a phone?

ANSWER KEY

Which sentence is a comparison that uses vivid language?

- A My hair was messy.
- B My hair felt good.
- C My hair was dirty.
- D My hair was a rat's nest of tangles.

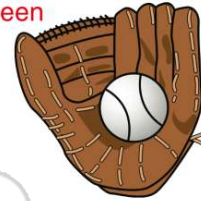

(d)

What vivid word could you use to replace the underlined word?

The old glove had been used many times.

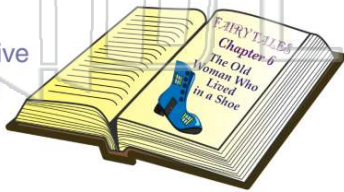

- A new
- B weathered
- C sad
- D big

(b)

Vivid language makes stories _____!

- A boring
- B come alive
- C ordinary
- D dull

(b)

Choose the sentence that relates to the readers' sense of touch.

- A The sand sounded like rocks.
- B The sand felt like a hot blanket.
- C The sand was brown.
- D The sand tasted salty.

(b)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A
- B part
- C missing
- D confused

- C The banana was yellow.
- D The unknown fruit tasted like a banana.

What vivid word could you use to replace the underlined word?

The soup was very hot.

- A scalding
- B more
- C good
- D a lot

(a)

Choose the sentence that relates to the readers' sense of hearing.

- A The phone is for you.
- B The cell phone ring sounded like a hiccup.
- C I bought a new phone.
- D Do you have a phone?

(b)