

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Choose the sentence in which the subject and verb do not agree.

- A The book is quite fascinating.
- B I sharpened my pencil before class.
- C Painting are quite time-consuming.
- D Dion loves to play basketball.

2 Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

Stay here _____ I get back.

- A while
- B no conjunction needed
- C because
- D until

3 Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

She will not be able to go _____ someone gives her a ride.

- A because
- B as if

4 Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

Lyle shared his lunch _____ Wanda would not be hungry.

- A as if
- B so that

5

PREVIEW

7

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- C Gym class comes after math.
- D I prefer running over swimming.

- A missing a subject
- B missing a verb
- C too many verbs
- D punctuation is incorrect

9 Which sentence is missing a subject?

- A Unexpectedly rang at midnight.
- B The clock struck midnight.
- C I am a night owl and love the late hours.
- D She invited me in for tea and cookies.

10 How can you make the sentence correct?

The boy ran fast, but it didn't win the race.

- A change "boy" to "bus"
- B change "fast" to "slow"
- C change "but" to "because"
- D change "it" to "he"

ANSWER KEY

Choose the sentence in which the subject and verb do not agree.

- A The book is quite fascinating.
- B I sharpened my pencil before class.
- C Painting are quite time-consuming.
- D Dion loves to play basketball.

(C)

Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

Stay here _____ I get back.

- A while
- B no conjunction needed
- C because
- D until

(d)

Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

She will not be able to go _____ someone gives her a ride.

- A because
- B as if
- C unless

(C)

Choose the conjunction that best completes this sentence.

Lyle shared his lunch _____ Wanda would not be hungry.

- A as if
- B so that
- C whether

(b)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- D I prefer running over swimming.

- B missing a verb
- C too many verbs
- D punctuation is incorrect

Which sentence is missing a subject?

- A Unexpectedly rang at midnight.
- B The clock struck midnight.
- C I am a night owl and love the late hours.
- D She invited me in for tea and cookies.

(a)

How can you make the sentence correct?

The boy ran fast, but it didn't win the race.

- A change "boy" to "bus"
- B change "fast" to "slow"
- C change "but" to "because"
- D change "it" to "he"

(d)