

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In Walk Two Moons by Sharon Creech, the main character describes her time in South Dakota as “hotter than blazes.”

What did she mean by that?

- A There was a forest fire.
- B It was unbearably hot.
- C It was summer.
- D South Dakota doesn't have snow.

3 Lori's heart raced and her eyes were as wide as saucers.

Which thing is most likely not true?

- A Lori is asleep.
- B Lori is watching a scary movie.
- C Lori sees a car accident right across

2 Carter panted and begged for a glass of water.

Which response is most likely true?

- A Carter is a dog.
- B Carter just read a book.
- C Carter completed a 10 mile race.
- D It's Carter's birthday.

4 You hear a creaking on the front porch.

What is most likely causing that sound?

- A Your mom is having a party out there.
- B One of the sheep has gotten onto the porch.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A glass of water.
- B Someone didn't turn the faucet off completely.
- C Someone is showering.
- D There is a flood in the basement.

10 I am thin and very long. I am used for sewing. What am I?

- B It has started snowing.
- C One of the teams has scored a goal.
- D The snack shop has gotten more hot dogs.

9 How might an author imply that school is difficult for some students?

- A Raul studied the lesson but couldn't understand it.
- B Kay made high honor roll both quarters.
- C She laughed and chatted with her friends.
- D Some students find school work very difficult.

- A a lamp
- B a piece of paper
- C broom
- D thread

ANSWER KEY

In Walk Two Moons by Sharon Creech, the main character describes her time in South Dakota as “hotter than blazes.”

What did she mean by that?

- A There was a forest fire.
- B It was unbearably hot.
- C It was summer.
- D South Dakota doesn't have snow.

(b)

Carter panted and begged for a glass of water.

Which response is most likely true?

- A Carter is a dog.
- B Carter just read a book.
- C Carter completed a 10 mile race.
- D It's Carter's birthday.

(c)

Lori's heart raced and her eyes were as wide as saucers.

Which thing is most likely not true?

- A Lori is asleep.
- B Lori is watching a scary movie.
- C Lori sees a car accident right across the street.

(a)

You hear a creaking on the front porch.

What is most likely causing that sound?

- A Your mom is having a party out there.
- B One of the sheep has gotten onto the porch.
- C There is a ghost out there.

(d)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- B Someone didn't turn the faucet off completely.
- C Someone is showering.
- D There is a flood in the basement.

- C One of the teams has scored a goal.
- D The snack shop has gotten more hot dogs.

How might an author imply that school is difficult for some students?

- A Raul studied the lesson but couldn't understand it.
- B Kay made high honor roll both quarters.
- C She laughed and chatted with her friends.
- D Some students find school work very difficult.

(a)

I am thin and very long.
I am used for sewing.
What am I?

- A a lamp
- B a piece of paper
- C broom
- D thread

(d)