

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 How might an author imply that doing chores is not very much fun?

A Doing chores is not fun.
B Scrubbing dirty toilets and filthy sinks was her job.
C Everyone should do chores.
D Ron dusted his room for five minutes.

2 The bruised, brown pear sat in the bowl for days and days.

This implies that most people don't like pears.

A true
B false

3 Corey squinted his eyes trying to make out the instructions written on the tiny card.

This implies that the print on the card was too small for Corey to read easily.

4 My paper for English took eons to finish.

This implies that all English papers are difficult.

A true
B false

A TRUE B FALSE

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 The cars on the highway were moving slowly.

This implies that...

A Vehicles often move slowly during rush hour.
B Worms have rush hour.
C A bus causes an accident at rush hour.

8 The water felt so good.

This implies that...

A Alia is in the desert.
B Alia hates the outdoors.
C Alia feels better when she is outside.
D The sun is warm.

9 How might an author imply that parents and children see things differently?

A Parents and children are very different.
B Mom and Jon see things differently.
C "Yes, I agree," Drew said to his dad.
D Mom laughed at the show, but Jiya didn't.

10 The water soothed Bryce's parched throat.

This sentence implies that Bryce had been very thirsty.

A true
B false

ANSWER KEY

How might an author imply that doing chores is not very much fun?

- A Doing chores is not fun.
- B Scrubbing dirty toilets and filthy sinks was her job.
- C Everyone should do chores.
- D Ron dusted his room for five minutes.

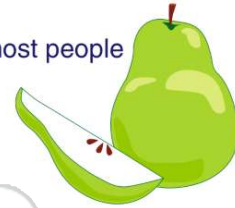

(b)

The bruised, brown pear sat in the bowl for days and days.

This implies that most people don't like pears.

- A true
- B false

(b)

Corey squinted his eyes trying to make out the instructions written on the tiny card.

This implies that the print on the card was too small for Corey to read easily.

- A TRUE
- B FALSE

(a)

My paper for English took eons to finish.

This implies that all English papers are difficult.

- A true
- B false

(b)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- slowly during rush hour.
- C Worms have rush hour.
- D A bus causes an accident at rush hour.

- A Alia is in the desert.
- B Alia hates the outdoors.
- C Alia feels better when she is outside.
- D The sun is warm.

How might an author imply that parents and children see things differently?

- A Parents and children are very different.
- B Mom and Jon see things differently.
- C "Yes, I agree," Drew said to his dad.
- D Mom laughed at the show, but Jiya didn't.

(d)

The water soothed Bryce's parched throat.

This sentence implies that Bryce had been very thirsty.

- A true
- B false

(a)