

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Choose the best concluding sentence for a paragraph about how sky diving would be amazing to do.

- A I am not afraid of heights.
- B I can't wait to try sky diving myself!
- C Airplanes are fun to fly on.
- D You would have to jump out.

2 Which sentence would be out of context in a paragraph about how my pet bird learned to talk?

- A We practiced with him everyday.
- B Eventually, he could say his name perfectly.
- C We said his name over and over.
- D Our bird likes to eat seeds.

3 Being sick is no fun. You have to stay inside all day. Which of the following would be the best supporting sentence to include in this paragraph?

- A All you can do is sleep and lay on the couch.
- B My sister was sick last week.
- C I don't like being sick.
- D I wish I could be sick.

4 Which sentence best supports a paragraph about how the last day of school was exciting, but also sad?

- A My school is huge.
- B Summer was here, but saying goodbye was sad.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Tracy is a great driver. Tracy likes to shop. So next time you need a ride, avoid Tracy. Tracy is my sister.

- A Tracy is a great driver.
- B Troy was a good student.
- C He made the team and was so incredibly happy.
- D Everyone went to football games, including baseball.

9 Which sentence would be out of context in a paragraph about how pretzels are made?

- A A little salt is added to pretzel dough.
- B The dough is shaped into pretzels.
- C The pretzels bake for 30 minutes.
- D My mom likes to eat pretzels and popcorn.

10 Which sentence would be best to conclude a paragraph written about how Vern felt seeing the ocean for the first time?

- A Vern and his family were going on vacation.
- B The ocean view will stay with him forever.
- C Vern couldn't wait to get there.
- D The ocean looked like a blue blanket.

ANSWER KEY

Choose the best concluding sentence for a paragraph about how sky diving would be amazing to do.

- A I am not afraid of heights.
- B I can't wait to try sky diving myself!
- C Airplanes are fun to fly on.
- D You would have to jump out.

(b)

Which sentence would be out of context in a paragraph about how my pet bird learned to talk?

- A We practiced with him everyday.
- B Eventually, he could say his name perfectly.
- C We said his name over and over.
- D Our bird likes to eat seeds.

(d)

Being sick is no fun. You have to stay inside all day.

Which of the following would be the best supporting sentence to include in this paragraph?

- A All you can do is sleep and lay on the couch.
- B My sister was sick last week.
- C I enjoy school.
- D My mom is sick.

(a)

Which sentence best supports a paragraph about how the last day of school was exciting, but also sad?

- A My school is huge.
- B Summer was here, but saying goodbye was sad.
- C I have many friends.
- D My teacher is nice.

(b)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- C So next time you need a ride, avoid Tracy.
- D Tracy is my sister.

- B Troy was a good student.
- C He made the team and was so incredibly happy.
- D Everyone went to football games.

Which sentence would be out of context in a paragraph about how pretzels are made?

- A A little salt is added to pretzel dough.
- B The dough is shaped into pretzels.
- C The pretzels bake for 30 minutes.
- D My mom likes to eat pretzels and popcorn.

(d)

Which sentence would be best to conclude a paragraph written about how Vern felt seeing the ocean for the first time?

- A Vern and his family were going on vacation.
- B The ocean view will stay with him forever.
- C Vern couldn't wait to get there.
- D The ocean looked like a blue blanket.

(b)