

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

What inference might be drawn if a character spits at people he meets?

- A The character has too much saliva.
- B The character ate something gross.
- C The character is nasty and unfriendly.
- D The character doesn't like saying hello.

3

The football team has won every game this season. You can infer _____.

- A the coach made them practice only at night
- B the team has strong players who run well

2

What inference might be drawn if there are dark clouds and a cold wind at noon and the weatherman has predicted it will rain for the next three days?

- A Tonight's baseball game will be cancelled.
- B There will be warm sunshine all afternoon.
- C People will have a huge picnic dinner.
- D A magician has cast a spell on the town.

4

A teacher reviews every lesson before giving a test. This means the _____.

- A football team has won every game
- B teacher likes to read books at night
- C school is having a dance Friday night
- D teacher wants

5

Ir
a
A
a
S
V
A
B
C
D

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A The friend helps you with your work.
- B The friend is always kind.
- C The friend forgets your birthday.
- D The friend calls every night.

- A something sour
- B something bitter
- C something crunchy
- D something sweet

9

A computer game has 42 levels. You can expect _____.

- A level 28 to be harder than level 35
- B levels 1 and 2 to be the easiest
- C level 42 to be easier than all the rest
- D level 28 to be easier than level 14

10

There are 5 minutes left to your favorite TV show, the police have not caught the killer and they just found another weapon. After the commercial, what would you expect?

- A All the loose ends are tied up.
- B The words "to be continued" on the screen.
- C The killer to confess and go to jail.
- D Your favorite character to confess.

ANSWER KEY

What inference might be drawn if a character spits at people he meets?

- A The character has too much saliva.
- B The character ate something gross.
- C The character is nasty and unfriendly.
- D The character doesn't like saying hello.

(c)

What inference might be drawn if there are dark clouds and a cold wind at noon and the weatherman has predicted it will rain for the next three days?

- A Tonight's baseball game will be cancelled.
- B There will be warm sunshine all afternoon.
- C People will have a huge picnic dinner.
- D A magician has cast a spell on the town.

(a)

The football team has won every game this season. You can infer _____.

- A the coach made them practice only at night
- B the team has strong players who run well
- C their new uniforms made a difference
- D

(b)

A teacher reviews every lesson before giving a test. This means the _____.

- A football team has won every game
- B teacher likes to read books at night
- C school is having a dance Friday night
- D teacher wants everyone to pass the test

(d)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A The friend helps you with your work.
- B The friend is always kind.
- C The friend forgets your birthday.
- D The friend calls every night.

- B something bitter
- C something crunchy
- D something sweet

A computer game has 42 levels. You can expect _____.

- A level 28 to be harder than level 35
- B levels 1 and 2 to be the easiest
- C level 42 to be easier than all the rest
- D level 28 to be easier than level 14

(b)

There are 5 minutes left to your favorite TV show, the police have not caught the killer and they just found another weapon. After the commercial, what would you expect?

- A All the loose ends are tied up.
- B The words "to be continued" on the screen.
- C The killer to confess and go to jail.
- D Your favorite character to confess.

(b)