

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Trisha asked Jenny for help with homework, but it seemed that Trisha only talked to Jenny when she needed something. Jenny would not be taken advantage of!

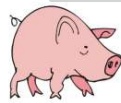

The reader interprets Jenny's feelings to be:

- A thrilled.
- B accepted.
- C annoyed.
- D panicked.

3 Principal Parker had to laugh. Even though Johnny was breaking an important rule, it was hilarious to see his pet pig follow him into the school!

One can infer that Mr. Parker:

- A will give Johnny detention after school.

2 Augustus heard the cathedral bells chime. He put on his sandals and descended the stairs. The knight who was his mentor was waiting for him.

The setting of this scene could be interpreted to be:

- A Medieval times.
- B Ancient Roman times.
- C Colonial times.
- D modern times.

4 Susan considered who could have taken the diamond necklace from her parents' room last night. Her brother and sister both had friends over.

Susan believes someone who was in her house that night took the necklace.

5
T
w p h
G
w
A
E

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 From this text, it is clear that Ford invented the automobile.

- A true
- B false

9 Jamil saw his dog limping to the door and howling. It scared him and he thought that his poor dog was about to die!

Jamil interpreted his dog's behavior to mean the dog's health was in grave danger.

- A true
- B false

Zella believed:

- A two people went to see an adventure film.
- B her sisters went to the movies without her.
- C her sisters tried to find her, but couldn't.
- D two tickets were accidentally torn.

10 I didn't need my art teacher to tell me I had talent; I've always simply had to paint. If I could earn a living from it, great, but even if I couldn't, it was the only way I could express myself.

One understands that this person is _____.

- A frustrated
- B an artist
- C desperate
- D an art teacher

ANSWER KEY

Trisha asked Jenny for help with homework, but it seemed that Trisha only talked to Jenny when she needed something. Jenny would not be taken advantage of!

The reader interprets Jenny's feelings to be:

- A thrilled.
- B accepted.
- C annoyed.
- D panicked.

(C)

Augustus heard the cathedral bells chime. He put on his sandals and descended the stairs. The knight who was his mentor was waiting for him.

The setting of this scene could be interpreted to be:

- A Medieval times.
- B Ancient Roman times.
- C Colonial times.
- D modern times.

(a)

Principal Parker had to laugh. Even though Johnny was breaking an important rule, it was hilarious to see his pet pig follow him into the school!

One can infer that Mr. Parker:

- A will give Johnny detention after school.
- B will call Johnny's parents immediately.
- C will change the rule so the pig can stay.
- D will punish Johnny.

(d)

Susan considered who could have taken the diamond necklace from her parents' room last night. Her brother and sister both had friends over.

Susan believes someone who was in her house that night took the necklace.

- A true

(a)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet the automobile.

- A true
- B false

- A two people went to see an adventure film.
- B her sisters went to the movies without her.
- C her sisters tried to find her, but couldn't.
- D two tickets were accidentally torn.

Jamil saw his dog limping to the door and howling. It scared him and he thought that his poor dog was about to die!

Jamil interpreted his dog's behavior to mean the dog's health was in grave danger.

- A true
- B false

(a)

I didn't need my art teacher to tell me I had talent; I've always simply had to paint. If I could earn a living from it, great, but even if I couldn't, it was the only way I could express myself.

One understands that this person is _____.

- A frustrated
- B an artist
- C desperate
- D an art teacher

(b)