

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Dear Joey, I hope you are staying safe. We are worried about you and can't wait until you come home. We listen for reports every day about the fighting. Don't take any unnecessary chances.

The person receiving this letter is:

- A living in an unsafe neighborhood.
- B in prison.
- C fighting in a war.
- D working undercover.

3 Today is our twentieth day at sea. The men are scared. Many have made this voyage to the New World safely, but have not returned. I don't have the heart to tell them that violent natives and disease await us on land.

One can interpret that:

- A this was about Columbus's trip in 1492.
- B this was about explorers that followed

2 She could see the clearing where they had built the house. It was beautiful here amid the mountains. Despite the wild countryside, she was glad they had traveled so far west to make their home.

The description indicates the setting is New England.

- A true
- B false

4 Emoot headed for the dome craft waiting for him. He thought about what he learned in school about people before they could travel to different galaxies. Life must have been difficult in the 21st century!

From the text, the time of the story is:

- A set in the past.

C
D
D n s
E
A
E
C
D

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7
I
e f
d
p

One can estimate the time of this text as:

- A Renaissance.
- B Colonial times.
- C Industrial Revolution.
- D World War II.

Halley's feelings toward her younger brother are:

- A sometimes annoyed, but usually affectionate.
- B sometimes fascinated, but usually irritated.
- C sometimes irritated, but usually concerned.
- D sometimes pleasant, but usually loving.

9 Kevin had studied hard for the history test. He not only reread the textbook, and his notes, but also went online to get more information. He knew the facts and the reasons behind them.

One can interpret from the text that:

- A Kevin is feeling anxious.
- B Kevin is feeling uncertain.
- C Kevin is feeling confident.
- D Kevin is feeling concerned.

10 It had been a long year. When Liam first came to Roseville, he believed the town to be full of "local yokels." Now he had a great admiration and respect for his new friends and neighbors.

From the text, we understand that Liam:

- A thinks less now about the people of Roseville.
- B now has a positive view of the townspeople.
- C hasn't changed his views about Roseville people.
- D knew the people had to prove themselves.

ANSWER KEY

Dear Joey, I hope you are staying safe. We are worried about you and can't wait until you come home. We listen for reports every day about the fighting. Don't take any unnecessary chances.

The person receiving this letter is:

- A living in an unsafe neighborhood.
- B in prison.
- C fighting in a war.
- D working undercover.

(C)

She could see the clearing where they had built the house. It was beautiful here amid the mountains. Despite the wild countryside, she was glad they had traveled so far west to make their home.

The description indicates the setting is New England.

- A true
- B false

(b)

Today is our twentieth day at sea. The men are scared. Many have made this voyage to the New World safely, but have not returned. I don't have the heart to tell them that violent natives and disease await us on land.

One can interpret that:

- A this was about Columbus's trip in 1492.
- B this was about explorers that followed Columbus.

(b)

Emoot headed for the dome craft waiting for him. He thought about what he learned in school about people before they could travel to different galaxies. Life must have been difficult in the 21st century!

From the text, the time of the story is:

- A set in the past.
- B set in the present.
- C set in the future.

(C)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet of this text as:

- A Renaissance.
- B Colonial times.
- C Industrial Revolution.
- D World War II.

- A sometimes annoyed, but usually affectionate.
- B sometimes fascinated, but usually irritated.
- C sometimes irritated, but usually concerned.
- D sometimes pleasant, but usually loving.

Kevin had studied hard for the history test. He not only reread the textbook, and his notes, but also went online to get more information. He knew the facts and the reasons behind them.

One can interpret from the text that:

- A Kevin is feeling anxious.
- B Kevin is feeling uncertain.
- C Kevin is feeling confident.
- D Kevin is feeling concerned.

(C)

It had been a long year. When Liam first came to Roseville, he believed the town to be full of "local yokels." Now he had a great admiration and respect for his new friends and neighbors.

From the text, we understand that Liam:

- A thinks less now about the people of Roseville.
- B now has a positive view of the townspeople.
- C hasn't changed his views about Roseville people.
- D knew the people had to prove themselves.

(b)