

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The end of a story is called the _____.

- A conflict
- B plot
- C character
- D resolution

2 What is not an example of a setting?

- A the year 1998
- B in New York City
- C running away from home
- D in a small apartment

3 What is not an example of a plot?

- A a boy getting into an argument with his father
- B a description of the boy's bedroom
- C a boy riding his bike across town
- D a boy saving a girl from drowning

4 The person who fights against the protagonist is a(n) _____.

- A dialogue
- B setting
- C antagonist
- D mood

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

B false

B false

9

The resolution is the last part of the setting.

- A true
- B false

10 The protagonist in a story is the hero.

- A true
- B false

True or false?

ANSWER KEY

The end of a story is called the _____.

- A conflict
- B plot
- C character
- D resolution

(d)

What is not an example of a setting?

- A the year 1998
- B in New York City
- C running away from home
- D in a small apartment

(c)

What is not an example of a plot?

- A a boy getting into an argument with his father
- B a description of the boy's bedroom
- C a boy riding his bike across town
- D a boy saving a girl from drowning

(b)

The person who fights against the protagonist is a(n) _____.

- A dialogue
- B setting
- C antagonist
- D mood

(c)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

The resolution is the last part of the setting.

- A true
- B false

(b)

The protagonist in a story is the hero.

- A true
- B false

True or false?

(a)

