

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The wolf was walking toward the campsite.
Which word is a preposition in this sentence?

- A wolf
- B walking
- C toward
- D campsite

2 The hikers were pushing against the wind as they climbed the mountain.
Which words are the prepositional phrase?

- A against the wind
- B were pushing
- C as they climbed
- D climbed the mountain

3 Where might I find some wild berries I can pick?
Which prepositional phrase would answer this question?

- A in the supermarket on Main Street
- B on the top shelf in the hall closet

4 A class playing Simon Says might hear the leader or Simon say, "Put your hands _____."

- A until we meet again
- B from here to California
- C beneath your arm pits

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A He lefts school for go home.
- B He left school for walking home.
- C He left school to go home.
- D He left school after go home.

- A Yesterday, she leaned toward saying yes.
- B Yesterday, she leant toward saying yes.
- C Yesterday, she leans toward saying yes.
- D Yesterday, she leaning toward saying yes.

9

Each students work is due Friday.
This sentence has one mistake. Which would be the correct way to write this sentence?

- A Each student's work is due Friday.
- B Each students works is due Friday.
- C Each student work is due Friday.
- D Each students' work is due Friday.

10

After the game, the coach tell him, "No way."
This sentence has one mistake. Which would be the correct way to write this sentence?

- A After the game, the coach tell he, "No way."
- B After the game, the coach told him, "No way."
- C After the game, the coach's tell him, "No way."
- D During the game, the coach tell him, "No way."

ANSWER KEY

The wolf was walking toward the campsite.

Which word is a preposition in this sentence?

- A wolf
- B walking
- C toward
- D campsite

(C)

The hikers were pushing against the wind as they climbed the mountain.

Which words are the prepositional phrase?

- A against the wind
- B were pushing
- C as they climbed
- D climbed the mountain

(a)

Where might I find some wild berries I can pick?

Which prepositional phrase would answer this question?

- A in the supermarket on Main Street
- B on the top shelf in the hall closet
- C over the bridge to the city
- D

(d)

A class playing Simon Says might hear the leader or Simon say, "Put your hands _____."

- A until we meet again
- B from here to California
- C beneath your arm pits
- D against the hot stove

(C)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A He lefts school for go home.
- B He left school for walking home.
- C He left school to go home.
- D He left school after go home.

- A leant toward saying yes.
- B Yesterday, she leant toward saying yes.
- C Yesterday, she leans toward saying yes.
- D Yesterday, she leaning toward saying yes.

Each students work is due Friday. This sentence has one mistake. Which would be the correct way to write this sentence?

- A Each student's work is due Friday.
- B Each students works is due Friday.
- C Each student work is due Friday.
- D Each students' work is due Friday.

(a)

After the game, the coach tell him, "No way." This sentence has one mistake. Which would be the correct way to write this sentence?

- A After the game, the coach tell he, "No way."
- B After the game, the coach told him, "No way."
- C After the game, the coach's tell him, "No way."
- D During the game, the coach tell him, "No way."

(b)