

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In Ethiopia, a girl was kidnapped by a gang of men. Two black-maned lions pounced on the men and stood over the girl for 4 hours until her father found her. When the lions saw the girl's family, they walked back into the grass. This story would appear in a _____.

- A daily newspaper
- B fashion magazine
- C graphic novel
- D sports magazine

2 A sidebar for a story about black-maned lions saving a girl in Ethiopia might be entitled _____.

- A Dangerous Lions
- B The African Savannah
- C African Cultures
- D Lion Behavior

3 A picture of a black-maned lion accompanied a story about how lions had saved a kidnapped girl in Ethiopia. What would be the caption?

- A The black-maned lion is a fierce hunter.
- B Rare African lions helped save a young girl's life.

4 A respected news reporter for The New York Times who lives in Africa wrote a story about a pair of black-maned lions who saved a girl from a gang of angry men. He probably made the story up.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A Snow in St. Petersburg
- B What To Do with Snow
- C Sledding Activities
- D Today's Steepest Roller Coasters

- A How to Ride a Roller Coaster
- B The First Roller Coasters
- C The Science Behind Roller Coasters
- D Roller Coasters at Theme Parks

9 The story of the first roller coaster appears in an encyclopedia, so it is nonfiction.

- A true
- B false

10 Most roller coasters today are made of steel. The cars are pulled to the top of a hill and the effect of gravity moves the car around the track. The potential energy in the car becomes kinetic energy as the car starts its fall. Which picture description goes with the caption above?

- A An old wooden roller coaster with short hills
- B Children in coaster cars screaming
- C A large roller coaster with 4 loops
- D A large amusement park sign

ANSWER KEY

In Ethiopia, a girl was kidnapped by a gang of men. Two black-maned lions pounced on the men and stood over the girl for 4 hours until her father found her. When the lions saw the girl's family, they walked back into the grass. This story would appear in a _____.

- A daily newspaper
- B fashion magazine
- C graphic novel
- D sports magazine

(a)

A sidebar for a story about black-maned lions saving a girl in Ethiopia might be entitled _____.

- A Dangerous Lions
- B The African Savannah
- C African Cultures
- D Lion Behavior

(d)

A picture of a black-maned lion accompanied a story about how lions had saved a kidnapped girl in Ethiopia. What would be the caption?

- A The black-maned lion is a fierce hunter.
- B Rare African lions helped save a young girl's life.
- C A lion like this one was befriended by a young girl.
- D

(b)

A respected news reporter for The New York Times who lives in Africa wrote a story about a pair of black-maned lions who saved a girl from a gang of angry men. He probably made the story up.

(b)

A true

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A Snow in St. Petersburg
- B What To Do with Snow
- C Sledding Activities
- D Today's Steepest Roller Coasters

- A How to Ride a Roller Coaster
- B The First Roller Coasters
- C The Science Behind Roller Coasters
- D Roller Coasters at Theme Parks

The story of the first roller coaster appears in an encyclopedia, so it is nonfiction.

- A true
- B false

(a)

Most roller coasters today are made of steel. The cars are pulled to the top of a hill and the effect of gravity moves the car around the track. The potential energy in the car becomes kinetic energy as the car starts its fall. Which picture description goes with the caption above?

- A An old wooden roller coaster with short hills
- B Children in coaster cars screaming
- C A large roller coaster with 4 loops
- D A large amusement park sign

(c)