

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The comparative form of the adjective in this sentence is correct.

My math teacher is funnier than my social studies teacher.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

2 Compound adjectives are separated by hyphens. Between which two words should there be a hyphen?

My great grandmother is approaching ninety years of age.

- A My and great
- B great and grandmother
- C approaching and ninety
- D ninety and years

3 Compound adjectives are separated by hyphens. Between which two words should there be a hyphen?

My much loved dog loves to play in the front yard.

- A much and loved
- B loved and dog

4 Which participle acts as an adjective in this sentence?

Running, Juan hurried home to tell his older brother the good news.

- A Running
- B hurried

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- B sister
- C is
- D intelligent

- A you
- B prefer
- C this
- D vegetable

9 Choose the demonstrative adjective.
Let's take these papers and books out of your backpack.

- A take
- B these
- C papers
- D books

10 In English, the adjective usually comes the noun in a sentence.

- A before
- B after
- C over
- D below

ANSWER KEY

The comparative form of the adjective in this sentence is correct.

My math teacher is funnier than my social studies teacher.

True or false?

- A true
- B false

(a)

Compound adjectives are separated by hyphens. Between which two words should there be a hyphen?

My great grandmother is approaching ninety years of age.

- A My and great
- B great and grandmother
- C approaching and ninety
- D ninety and years

(b)

Compound adjectives are separated by hyphens. Between which two words should there be a hyphen?

My much loved dog loves to play in the front yard.

- A much and loved
- B loved and dog
- C dog and loves

(a)

Which participle acts as an adjective in this sentence?

Running, Juan hurried home to tell his older brother the good news.

- A Running
- B hurried
- C tell

(a)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- C is
- D intelligent

- B prefer
- C this
- D vegetable

Choose the demonstrative adjective.
Let's take these papers and books out of your backpack.

- A take
- B these
- C papers
- D books

(b)

In English, the adjective usually comes _____ the noun in a sentence.

- A before
- B after
- C over
- D below

(a)