Land Habitats

1. A _____________________ is the place where a plant or animal lives.

2. Name two things a habitat provides for plants and animals that live there.

3. A habitat can be very large or very small. True or False? Circle the correct answer.

4. ___________________________ are very dense, warm, wet forests with many different plants and animals.

5. Which can be found in a rain forest? Circle it.

6. Deserts are very dry places. Plants and animals that live in the desert have to survive without much

7. What kind of plant is pictured here?

8. The ____________________ is very cold and is located around the North Pole.

9. Many animals that live in the Arctic grow thicker fur during the winter and their fur color changes to white. Why would an animal’s fur change to white?

10. A woodland is land covered with shrubs and

© Copyright MMXVI NewPath Learning. All Rights Reserved. Permission is granted for the purchaser to make copies for non-commercial educational purposes only. Visit us at www.newpathworksheets.com
1. A habitat is the place where a plant or animal lives.

2. Name two things a habitat provides for plants and animals that live there.
   - food, water, shelter, etc.

3. A habitat can be very large or very small. True or False? Circle the correct answer.
   - true

4. Rainforests are very dense, warm, wet forests with many different plants and animals.

5. Which can be found in a rainforest? Circle it.
   - cactus

6. Deserts are very dry places. Plants and animals that live in the desert have to survive without much water.

7. What kind of plant is pictured here?
   - cactus

8. The Arctic is very cold and is located around the North Pole.

9. Many animals that live in the Arctic grow thicker fur during the winter and their fur color changes to white. Why would an animal’s fur color change to white?
   - to blend in with the snow

10. A woodland is land covered with shrubs and trees.