

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Living things interact in many ways. These interactions can _____ a living thing.

- A only help
- B help, harm, or do nothing to
- C only harm
- D always does nothing to

2 Living things can help each other in groups. An example of this is _____.

- A a worm living underground
- B a bird living in a nest
- C a bee helping a flower
- D members of a pack protecting each other

3 What is an example of one living thing helping another living thing without being helped or harmed itself?

- A mosquito biting a human
- B a bee on a flower

4 Two living things can help each other at the same time. An example of this is _____.

- A a snail living in a shell
- B rain falling on a plant
- C a bird in a nest in tree

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A Carnivores
- B Producers
- C Consumers
- D Animals

- A plants
- B forests
- C producers
- D consumers

9 What is an herbivore?

- A a living thing that makes its own food
- B a living thing that eats animals
- C a living thing that only eats plants
- D a living thing that doesn't eat

10 A carnivore is a living thing that only eats _____.

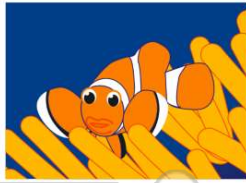

- A other animals
- B plants
- C soil
- D leaves

ANSWER KEY

Living things interact in many ways. These interactions can _____ a living thing.

- A only help
- B help, harm, or do nothing to
- C only harm
- D always does nothing to

(b)

Living things can help each other in groups. An example of this is _____.

- A a worm living underground
- B a bird living in a nest
- C a bee helping a flower
- D members of a pack protecting each other

(d)

What is an example of one living thing helping another living thing without being helped or harmed itself?

- A mosquito biting a human
- B a bee on a flower
- C barnacles on a whale
- D

(c)

Two living things can help each other at the same time. An example of this is _____.

- A a snail living in a shell
- B rain falling on a plant
- C a bird in a nest in tree
- D bees spreading pollen and getting

(d)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- B Producers
- C Consumers
- D Animals

- B forests
- C producers
- D consumers

What is an herbivore?

- A a living thing that makes its own food
- B a living thing that eats animals
- C a living thing that only eats plants
- D a living thing that doesn't eat

(c)

A carnivore is a living thing that only eats _____.

- A other animals
- B plants
- C soil
- D leaves

(a)