

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Animals go to different places to get what they need to survive. Where do plants go to get what they need to survive?

- A Plants usually stay in the same place.
- B All plants depend on humans to survive.
- C Plants need only sunshine to survive.
- D All plants go other places.

3 For a garden in your yard, what is important to observe before picking out the type of plants to plant?

- A how far it is to walk to your garden
- B how much sunlight the garden gets
- C what shovel to use

2 As the weather gets colder, you see a group of geese flying south to an area with a warmer climate. Geese are examples of birds that _____.

- A populate
- B investigate
- C migrate
- D hibernate

4 Many birds build a nest in a tree and fly down to a puddle to take a drink. What does this show you about what living things need to survive?

- A They only need living things.
- B They only need nonliving things.
- C They need living and 5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A It will be sunny.
- B It will be very cloudy.
- C It will be rainy.
- D It will rain most of the day.

9 While hiking, you find a mineral and scratch it with your fingernail and pieces of it fall to the ground. What property have you just identified of the mineral?

- A its hardness
- B its color
- C its luster
- D if it makes a streak on the ground

10 Your class will plant tall plants on Earth Day, but you live in an area that is always very windy. Where would be a good, protected place to plant them to protect them from wind?

- A in the middle of an open field
- B under some large rocks
- C along a wall that blocks the wind
- D near the school pond

ANSWER KEY

Animals go to different places to get what they need to survive. Where do plants go to get what they need to survive?

- A Plants usually stay in the same place.
- B All plants depend on humans to survive.
- C Plants need only sunshine to survive.
- D All plants go other places.

(a)

As the weather gets colder, you see a group of geese flying south to an area with a warmer climate. Geese are examples of birds that _____.

- A populate
- B investigate
- C migrate
- D hibernate

(c)

For a garden in your yard, what is important to observe before picking out the type of plants to plant?

- A how far it is to walk to your garden
- B how much sunlight the garden gets
- C what shovel to use
- D what time of day it is

(b)

Many birds build a nest in a tree and fly down to a puddle to take a drink. What does this show you about what living things need to survive?

- A They only need living things.
- B They only need nonliving things.
- C They need living and nonliving things.

(c)

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A It will be sunny.
- B It will be very cloudy.
- C It will be rainy.
- D It will rain most of the day.

- B A severe thunderstorm could happen in your area.
- C A blizzard might be coming.
- D It might rain next week.

While hiking, you find a mineral and scratch it with your fingernail and pieces of it fall to the ground. What property have you just identified of the mineral?

- A its hardness
- B its color
- C its luster
- D if it makes a streak on the ground

(a)

Your class will plant tall plants on Earth Day, but you live in an area that is always very windy. Where would be a good, protected place to plant them to protect them from wind?

- A in the middle of an open field
- B under some large rocks
- C along a wall that blocks the wind
- D near the school pond

(c)