

ATTRIBUTES

What are Attributes?

- An attribute describes an object.
- You use attributes to describe two objects when they are not the same.
- An attribute can tell you if an object is shorter, taller, longer, or smaller than another object.

How to use attributes:

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

The worm is shorter than the snake.

OR

The snake is longer than the worm.

