

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In Math class, we studied a graph of crops grown in Texas.

The purpose of the graph was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D amuse

2 During our Scout meeting, we wrote invitations to our fathers asking them to go on our camp-out with us.

The goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B disturb D entertain

3 Before Sarah began selling Girl Scout cookies, she wrote out what she planned to say to convince her

4 My friend and I made up and wrote down funny songs to sing.

Our goal was to _____ 5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Home asking for parents to help out at our games.

The goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D funny

8 Asking her to come to concert for the Halloween parade.

His goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D distract

9 I sent an instant message to my cousin asking her to come to my recital.

My goal was to _____

A amuse C persuade
B entertain D inform

10 At the assembly, we learned the parts of an orchestra.

One goal of the assembly was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D joke

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In Math class, we studied a graph of crops grown in Texas.

The purpose of the graph was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D amuse

2 During our Scout meeting, we wrote invitations to our fathers asking them to go on our camp-out with us.

The goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B disturb D entertain

3 Before Sarah began selling Girl Scout cookies, she wrote out what she planned to say to convince her

4 My friend and I made up and wrote down funny songs to sing.

Our goal was to _____ 5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Home asking for parents to help out at our games.

The goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D funny

8 Asking her to come to concert for the Halloween parade.

His goal was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D distract

9 I sent an instant message to my cousin asking her to come to my recital.

My goal was to _____

A amuse C persuade
B entertain D inform

10 At the assembly, we learned the parts of an orchestra.

One goal of the assembly was to _____

A inform C persuade
B entertain D joke

