

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. A common noun could be a word like state. A proper noun might be a word like Florida.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

2 A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. A common noun could be a word like state. Artists start drawing when they are children.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

3 1. A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. 2. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. 3. A common noun

4 A verb is the most important word in the predicate of a sentence. A verb is usually an action word. Some verbs

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

9 1. Adjectives are important words. 2. Boys and girls like games. 3. A noun like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. 4. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

10 Canada is north of the United States of America. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. Canada is not divided into states. Canada is divided into provinces.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. A common noun could be a word like state. A proper noun might be a word like Florida.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

2 A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. A common noun could be a word like state. Artists start drawing when they are children.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

3 1. A noun is the name of a person, a place, or a thing. 2. A noun is the most important word in the subject of a sentence. 3. A common noun

4 A verb is the most important word in the predicate of a sentence. A verb is usually an action word. Some verbs

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

8 like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false

9 1. Adjectives are important words. 2. Boys and girls like games. 3. A noun like baby is more interesting when there is a word to describe the word baby. 4. An adjective like happy or chubby tells us more about the baby.

Which sentence does not belong?

A 1 C 3
B 2 D 4

10 Canada is north of the United States of America. Canada's population is much smaller than that of the United States. Canada is not divided into states. Canada is divided into provinces.

This paragraph makes sense.

A true B false