

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

Animals have ways to hide from predators. A chameleon can change its color. Some insects look like leaves or sticks. A turtle can pull inside his shell.

What is this article mostly about?

- A chameleons
- B insects
- C turtle shells
- D how animals hide

2

Jack planned to have a friend over and play video games. Jack had received a new game for his birthday. His brother, Will, was using the game controller and would not give it up. What is the conflict in this story?

- A Will's friend arrived.
- B Both want to use the controller now.
- C Jack lost his new game.
- D Jack was sick.

3

My teacher is so funny. She wears clothes that match our work. She tells jokes when she gives spelling tests. She uses strange voices when she

4

We will see many species of animals today. We will hear and smell them. We may even touch

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet paper. He tries to squeeze himself low in his seat. He hopes she won't notice him. Why is Jim doing that?

7

- A He knows the answer.
- B He doesn't know the answer.
- C His teacher likes it.
- D He wants to make her laugh.

around town. I hope someone finds him and returns him to me. How does the author feel about his dog?

- A He wants a new dog.
- B His dog is too big to care for.
- C He misses his dog.
- D He doesn't like his dog at all.

9

Joey did not do any homework last night. He stayed up too late playing video games. He overslept this morning. The TV weatherman just announced that all schools are closed because of snow. How does Joey probably feel?

- A nervous
- B relieved
- C hungry
- D angry

10

We went into an elevator that took us 25 stories to the top of a building. When we got out we could see the whole city. Everything looked so small and far away. What is the setting for this story?

- A a garage
- B a shoe store
- C a restaurant
- D an observation deck

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Animals have ways to hide from predators. A chameleon can change its color. Some insects look like leaves or sticks. A turtle can pull inside his shell. What is this article mostly about?

- A chameleons
- B insects
- C turtle shells
- D how animals hide

2 Jack planned to have a friend over and play video games. Jack had received a new game for his birthday. His brother, Will, was using the game controller and would not give it up. What is the conflict in this story?

- A Will's friend arrived.
- B Both want to use the controller now.
- C Jack lost his new game.
- D Jack was sick.

3 My teacher is so funny. She wears clothes that match our work. She tells jokes when she gives spelling tests. She uses strange voices when she

4 We will see many species of animals today. We will hear and smell them. We may even touch

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 paper. He tries to squeeze himself low in his seat. He hopes she won't notice him. Why is Jim doing that?

- A He knows the answer.
- B He doesn't know the answer.
- C His teacher likes it.
- D He wants to make her laugh.

around town. I hope someone finds him and returns him to me. How does the author feel about his dog?

- A He wants a new dog.
- B His dog is too big to care for.
- C He misses his dog.
- D He doesn't like his dog at all.

9 Joey did not do any homework last night. He stayed up too late playing video games. He overslept this morning. The TV weatherman just announced that all schools are closed because of snow. How does Joey probably feel?

- A nervous
- B relieved
- C hungry
- D angry

10 We went into an elevator that took us 25 stories to the top of a building. When we got out we could see the whole city. Everything looked so small and far away. What is the setting for this story?

- A a garage
- B a shoe store
- C a restaurant
- D an observation deck

