

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When you make an educated guess about what is going to happen next in the story it is called a _____.

- A dream
- B prediction
- C concentration
- D wild guess

2 Greg was never good at baseball. He stood in the field during physical education class with his glove barely on his hand. The teacher hit a ball in the air and it was heading his way.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A Greg sits down.
- B Greg drops the ball.
- C Greg makes a great catch.
- D Greg runs away.

3 Sally showed her mom the doll she wanted in the store many times before her birthday. She wanted that doll more than anything. Her birthday finally came. Sally's mom handed her _____.

4 Max the dog always loved chasing cats. No matter how hard his family tried, no one could stop him from chasing cats. One day when a cat walked into Max's yard _____.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ any puddles until she waved to her friend. Emily did not notice the large puddle in front of her.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A She ran into the street to miss the puddle.
- B She got a ride with her friend.
- C She stepped right into the puddle.
- D She went home.

8 _____ the blanket and mom was unpacking the picnic basket. Suddenly dark clouds filled the sky.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A It started to snow.
- B It started to rain.
- C Their picnic blanket blew away.
- D It started to hail.

9 Mason had a favorite teddy bear named Bubba. Mason slept with Bubba every night. One night, Mason's mom went to tuck Mason into bed. Just then, Mason remembered he had left Bubba at Grandma's house that day.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A Mason started to cry.
- B Mason went for a walk.
- C Mason played outside.
- D Mason went to sleep at his Grandma's.

10 Hank studied for his Math test every night. He practiced his math facts at breakfast and dinner for three weeks. He had his parents quiz him each night. The day of the big test came.

What would be the best prediction of how Hank did on the test?

- A He did well.
- B He failed.
- C He refused to take it.
- D He left every answer blank.

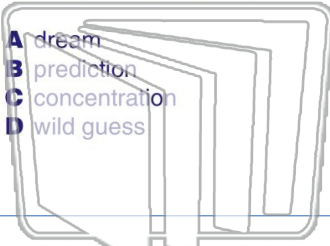

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 When you make an educated guess about what is going to happen next in the story it is called a _____.

- A dream
- B prediction
- C concentration
- D wild guess

2 Greg was never good at baseball. He stood in the field during physical education class with his glove barely on his hand. The teacher hit a ball in the air and it was heading his way.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A Greg sits down.
- B Greg drops the ball.
- C Greg makes a great catch.
- D Greg runs away.

3 Sally showed her mom the doll she wanted in the store many times before her birthday. She wanted that doll more than anything. Her birthday finally came. Sally's mom handed her _____.

4 Max the dog always loved chasing cats. No matter how hard his family tried, no one could stop him from chasing cats. One day when a cat walked into Max's yard _____.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ any puddles until she waved to her friend. Emily did not notice the large puddle in front of her.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A She ran into the street to miss the puddle.
- B She got a ride with her friend.
- C She stepped right into the puddle.
- D She went home.

8 _____ the blanket and mom was unpacking the picnic basket. Suddenly dark clouds filled the sky.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A It started to snow.
- B It started to rain.
- C Their picnic blanket blew away.
- D It started to hail.

9 Mason had a favorite teddy bear named Bubba. Mason slept with Bubba every night. One night, Mason's mom went to tuck Mason into bed. Just then, Mason remembered he had left Bubba at Grandma's house that day.

What would be the best prediction of what happened next?

- A Mason started to cry.
- B Mason went for a walk.
- C Mason played outside.
- D Mason went to sleep at his Grandma's.

10 Hank studied for his Math test every night. He practiced his math facts at breakfast and dinner for three weeks. He had his parents quiz him each night. The day of the big test came.

What would be the best prediction of how Hank did on the test?

- A He did well.
- B He failed.
- C He refused to take it.
- D He left every answer blank.

