

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Outlines, graphs, and timelines are all ways to organize information.

2 Compare and contrast is one way to organize information.

- A true
- B false

NEW PATH LEARNING

3 Which of the following is an example of step-by-step instructions?

- A The cake needs butter, sugar, and flour.

4 This passage is an example of compare and contrast.

Because Chester Darren did not contact _____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Many parts of the body are labeled. The heart is labeled: The heart is the pump for the blood system. What text heading would you expect to find on this page?

- A The Nervous System
- B How Our Bodies Work
- C The Skeletal System
- D Writing Love Letters

- A the definition of a key word
- B a summary of each chapter
- C synonyms for key words
- D the page number of major concepts

NEW PATH LEARNING

9 A book about Native Americans had the following Table of Contents:

Tribes of the Plains	75
Arctic People	93
Navajo of Arizona	118

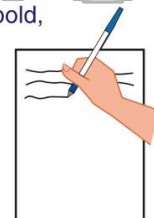

These chapters were organized by geographical region.

- A true
- B false

10 Authors use different styles or effects in print (making something bold, underlining it, using a larger font) for concepts that are less important.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Outlines, graphs, and timelines are all ways to organize information.

2 Compare and contrast is one way to organize information.

A true
B false

3 Which of the following is an example of step-by-step instructions?

A The cake needs butter, sugar, and flour.

4 This passage is an example of compare and contrast.

Because Chester Darren did not contact _____

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

5

7 Many parts of the body are labeled. The heart is labeled: The heart is the pump for the blood system. What text heading would you expect to find on this page?

- A The Nervous System
- B How Our Bodies Work
- C The Skeletal System
- D Writing Love Letters

- A the definition of a key word
- B a summary of each chapter
- C synonyms for key words
- D the page number of major concepts

9 A book about Native Americans had the following Table of Contents:

Tribes of the Plains	75
Arctic People	93
Navajo of Arizona	118

These chapters were organized by geographical region.

- A true
- B false

10 Authors use different styles or effects in print (making something bold, underlining it, using a larger font) for concepts that are less important.

- A true
- B false

