

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Myths are about people and events that happened long ago.

A true
B false

2 The villain is usually the character who resolves the conflict and saves the day.

A true
B false

3 What is unique about the animal characters in a fable?

4 A fairy tale most often has a _____ and a solution.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 The importance of making words be considered a _____.

- A fairy tale
- B poem
- C fable
- D chapter book

8 _____ could be told by his lab assistant.

A true
B false

9 An novel is a story which is not true but is told as if it is true.

A true
B false

10 In the story of the boy who cried wolf, a boy yelled 'wolf!' as a warning to his neighbors a few times as a joke when there was no wolf, and then when there really was a wolf, no one believed him.

What is the moral of this story?

- A Yelling is not good.
- B You should always tell the truth.
- C You should be nice.
- D You should never laugh.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Myths are about people and events that happened long ago.

- A true
- B false

2 The villain is usually the character who resolves the conflict and saves the day.

- A true
- B false

3 What is unique about the animal characters in a fable?

4 A fairy tale most often has a _____ and a solution.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 The importance of making words be considered a _____.

- A fairy tale
- B poem
- C fable
- D chapter book

8 _____ could be told by his lab assistant.

- A true
- B false

9 An novel is a story which is not true but is told as if it is true.

- A true
- B false

10 In the story of the boy who cried wolf, a boy yelled 'wolf!' as a warning to his neighbors a few times as a joke when there was no wolf, and then when there really was a wolf, no one believed him.

What is the moral of this story?

- A Yelling is not good.
- B You should always tell the truth.
- C You should be nice.
- D You should never laugh.