

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Hawks can often be seen perched on top of lampposts along interstate highways. Although this may seem like a strange place, it gives the hawk a perfect vantage point for seeing the small animals it will catch, kill, and eat. Why did the author write this passage?

- A To inform the reader about hawks.
- B To persuade people to kill hawks.
- C To provide entertainment for drivers.
- D To make the reader consider flying.

2 Mexico is a beautiful country with a rich history. Visitors say it has everything to offer: sunshine, clean beaches, friendly people, and ancient ruins to explore. Mexico is the perfect place for a family vacation or for a couple wanting to get away from it all.

- A The author is offering facts about Mexico.
- B The author is persuading people to visit.
- C The reader might be entertained by this.
- D The reader might be bored by this.

3 At a family camp site, one of the grandchildren started singing a marshmallow song. The rest of the family tried to sing along. Suddenly, they all heard something in the bushes. One of the 4 Motorcycles drive too fast and cut people off. The drivers don't care about people driving cars. Motorcycles are dangerous and should not be allowed on highways.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 cars have never been stable and no new engineering changes have occurred. No driver is safe in this car." Why would the author write these sentences?

- A He is trying to entertain us by being funny.
- B He is persuading people to not buy the car.
- C She is giving us information that is true.
- D She is persuading people to buy this car.

8 When you look at a piece of white paper, you will see a green image.

This is an example of _____ writing.

- A entertaining
- B descriptive
- C persuasive
- D informative

9 Pumpkins have many uses. Some people make pies or jack-o-lanterns, but recently farms have been holding catapult contests. People put a pumpkin on the catapult, let it throw the pumpkin into the air, and measure how far the pumpkin flew. Which sentence is informative?

- A It is fun to watch the pumpkins go splat.
- B Pumpkin seeds are best when toasted.
- C The pumpkin's weight affects the distance.
- D Pumpkin "guts" are hard to clean up.

10 The equator runs through the northern part of South America making it a very hot area.

This sentence is entertaining.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Hawks can often be seen perched on top of lampposts along interstate highways. Although this may seem like a strange place, it gives the hawk a perfect vantage point for seeing the small animals it will catch, kill, and eat. Why did the author write this passage?

A To inform the reader about hawks.
B To persuade people to kill hawks.
C To provide entertainment for drivers.
D To make the reader consider flying.

2 Mexico is a beautiful country with a rich history. Visitors say it has everything to offer: sunshine, clean beaches, friendly people, and ancient ruins to explore. Mexico is the perfect place for a family vacation or for a couple wanting to get away from it all.

A The author is offering facts about Mexico.
B The author is persuading people to visit.
C The reader might be entertained by this.
D The reader might be bored by this.

3 At a family camp site, one of the grandchildren started singing a marshmallow song. The rest of the family tried to sing along. Suddenly, they all heard something in the bushes. One of the 4 Motorcycles drive too fast and cut people off. The drivers don't care about people driving cars. Motorcycles are dangerous and should not be allowed on highways.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 cars have never been stable and no new engineering changes have occurred. No driver is safe in this car." Why would the author write these sentences?

A He is trying to entertain us by being funny.
B He is persuading people to not buy the car.
C She is giving us information that is true.
D She is persuading people to buy this car.

8 When you look at a piece of white paper, you will see a green image.

This is an example of _____ writing.

A entertaining C persuasive
B descriptive D informative

9 Pumpkins have many uses. Some people make pies or jack-o-lanterns, but recently farms have been holding catapult contests. People put a pumpkin on the catapult, let it throw the pumpkin into the air, and measure how far the pumpkin flew. Which sentence is informative?

A It is fun to watch the pumpkins go splat.
B Pumpkin seeds are best when toasted.
C The pumpkin's weight affects the distance.
D Pumpkin "guts" are hard to clean up.

10 The equator runs through the northern part of South America making it a very hot area.

This sentence is entertaining.

A true B false