

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The reason an event happens is the _____.

- A cause
- B effect
- C main idea
- D supporting detail

2 What happens during an event is called the _____.

- A cause
- B effect
- C main idea
- D supporting detail

NEW PATH LEARNING

3 When you ask yourself, why did this happen? you are looking for the cause.

4 When you ask yourself, what happened? you are looking for the cause.

5

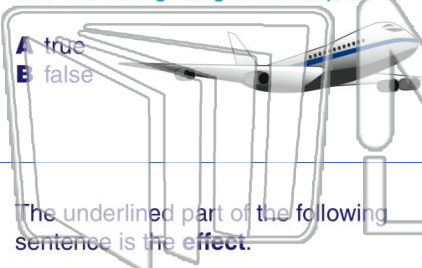

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

Leah has missed her flight because she was late getting to the airport.

- A true
- B false

Ashley broke her leg skiing when she crossed her ski tips and fell.

- A true
- B false

NEW PATH LEARNING

9 The underlined part of the following sentence is the effect.

Because the waitress was not careful carrying the tray, everything on it came crashing to the floor.

- A true
- B false

10 Finish the sentence with the appropriate effect.

Since the storm cut off Haley's electricity...

- A she watched TV.
- B she turned on her lamp and read.
- C she was unable to watch her favorite TV program.
- D she wanted to see Disney World.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The reason an event happens is the _____.

A cause
B effect
C main idea
D supporting detail

2 What happens during an event is called the _____.

A cause
B effect
C main idea
D supporting detail

3 When you ask yourself, why did this happen? you are looking for the cause.

4 When you ask yourself, what happened? you are looking for the cause.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Leah has missed her flight because she was late getting to the airport.

A true
B false

8 Ashley broke her leg skiing when she crossed her ski tips and fell.

A true
B false

9 The underlined part of the following sentence is the effect.

Because the waitress was not careful carrying the tray, everything on it came crashing to the floor.

A true
B false

10 Finish the sentence with the appropriate effect.

Since the storm cut off Haley's electricity...

A she watched TV.
B she turned on her lamp and read.
C she was unable to watch her favorite TV program.
D she wanted to see Disney World.