

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Knowing that a biologist is one who studies living things, Jessica was able to make the analogy that a paleontologist must be one who studies in another field.

- A true
- B false

2 Since the prefix im- means not, then impatient means having lots of patience.

- A true
- B false

3 Since the prefix pre- means before, then to preview a movie is:

- A to see it many times

4 Since the prefix mis- means bad or wrong, then misfortune is:

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

- A conjunctions
- B adjectives
- C adverbs
- D prepositions

The nameless dog was given to Ben who gave him a home.

- A The dog had no name.
- B The dog had too many names.
- C Ben did not know what to name the dog.
- D The dog now had a home and a name.

9 The suffix -est means to show superiority. What does the following sentence mean?

Hannah was the eldest of the five children in her family.

- A Hannah was very old.
- B Hannah was the youngest child.
- C Hannah was inferior to the other children.
- D Hannah was older than all the other children.

10 _____, and _____ words help give meaning to part of a word that might make an unknown word easier to decode.

- A Adjectives, verbs, adverb
- B Prefixes, prepositions, pronoun
- C Prefixes, suffixes, root
- D Prefixes, suffixes, transitional

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Knowing that a biologist is one who studies living things, Jessica was able to make the analogy that a paleontologist must be one who studies in another field.

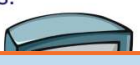

- A true
- B false

2 Since the prefix im- means not, then impatient means having lots of patience.

- A true
- B false

3 Since the prefix pre- means before, then to preview a movie is:

- A to see it many times

4 Since the prefix mis- means bad or wrong, then misfortune is:

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

- A conjunctions
- B adjectives
- C adverbs
- D prepositions

The nameless dog was given to Ben who gave him a home.

- A The dog had no name.
- B The dog had too many names.
- C Ben did not know what to name the dog.
- D The dog now had a home and a name.

9 The suffix -est means to show superiority. What does the following sentence mean?

Hannah was the eldest of the five children in her family.

- A Hannah was very old.
- B Hannah was the youngest child.
- C Hannah was inferior to the other children.
- D Hannah was older than all the other children.

10 _____ and _____ words help give meaning to part of a word that might make an unknown word easier to decode.

- A Adjectives, verbs, adverb
- B Prefixes, prepositions, pronoun
- C Prefixes, suffixes, root
- D Prefixes, suffixes, transitional