

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Onomatopoeia is the use of words that sound like the noises they describe. Which sentence is an example of the use of onomatopoeia?

- A Boots make splishes and sloshes and slushes.
- B Hammers can be heard making loud sounds.
- C Kittens jump and run and twist and turn and hide.
- D The wind can be strong or gentle or very mild.

2 An example of a word that illustrates onomatopoeia is _____.

- A talk
- B screech
- C beautiful
- D noisy

3 Which word in this sentence is an example of onomatopoeia?
"The magician made the rabbit disappear with _____."

4 Alliteration is a literary device used to create music in poetry.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____

9 Repetition in a poem might _____.

- A make the poem sound like a poem
- B direct the reader's attention
- C emphasize important ideas
- D compare more than one idea

10 The use of repetition by a poet can set a mood.

- A true
- B false

- A I could not behold a red rose so bold.
- B Minnie Mouse likes to stay inside her home.
- C Dill pickles can be sour to the taste.
- D I could not hold the rose with thick thorns.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Onomatopoeia is the use of words that sound like the noises they describe. Which sentence is an example of the use of onomatopoeia?

- A Boots make splishes and sloshes and slushes.
- B Hammers can be heard making loud sounds.
- C Kittens jump and run and twist and turn and hide.
- D The wind can be strong or gentle or very mild.

2 An example of a word that illustrates onomatopoeia is _____.

- A talk
- B screech
- C beautiful
- D noisy

3 Which word in this sentence is an example of onomatopoeia?

"The magician made the rabbit disappear with _____."

4 Alliteration is a literary device used to create music in poetry.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 anyming pairs

9 Repetition in a poem might _____.

- A make the poem sound like a poem
- B direct the reader's attention
- C emphasize important ideas
- D compare more than one idea

10 anyming pairs

- A I could not behold a red rose so bold.
- B Minnie Mouse likes to stay inside her home.
- C Dill pickles can be sour to the taste.
- D I could not hold the rose with thick thorns.

10 The use of repetition by a poet can set a mood.

- A true
- B false

