

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

Which is using an example of personification?

- A The dog wanted someone to walk him outside.
- B The sun knows it warms the hearts of many.
- C People need to be kind to other people.
- D One person might help another person.

2

When an object acts like a person, a poet is using a simile.

- A true
- B false

true or false?

3

Personification gives human attributes to a nonliving thing.

4

Which is an example of a simile?

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

9

One purpose of a metaphor is to inspire you to see something in a new way.

- A true
- B false

10

Which is an example of exaggeration?

- A Giraffes are very tall and have long necks.
- B It was so tall it had to bend to come inside.
- C The girl was so tall she made the basketball team.
- D The basketball star had a neck like a giraffe.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which is using an example of personification?

A The dog wanted someone to walk him outside.

B The sun knows it warms the hearts of many.

C People need to be kind to other people.

D One person might help another person.

2 When an object acts like a person, a poet is using a simile.

A true

B false

true or false?

3 Personification gives human attributes to a nonliving thing.

HELLO

4 Which is an example of a simile?

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

9 One purpose of a metaphor is to inspire you to see something in a new way.

A true

B false

10 Which is an example of exaggeration?

A Giraffes are very tall and have long necks.

B It was so tall it had to bend to come inside.

C The girl was so tall she made the basketball team.

D The basketball star had a neck like a giraffe.

