

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The phrase babbling brook is an example of alliteration.

A true
B false

2 An old man, upon seeing the house he grew up in, is reminded of a special family event. The author can show the reader that memory using _____.

A foreshadowing
B a flashback
C an alliteration
D a symbol

3 A writer who likes to play with the sound of words is likely to use _____.

4 Two literary techniques that have to do with how an author uses time are:

5

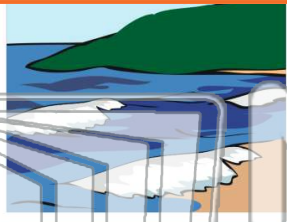

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7

A shadow appearing near a character doom.

A true
B false

8

He didn't know that it would be the last time he would see her.

This is an example of _____.

A foreshadowing
B a flashback
C an alliteration
D a symbol

9

A shadow appearing near a character doom.

A rhymes with
B is a flashback for
C is an alliteration for
D could be a symbol for

10

He didn't know that it would be the last time he would see her.

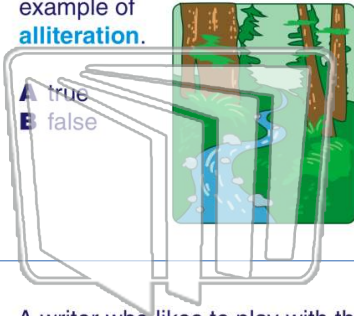

This is an example of _____.

A foreshadowing
B a flashback
C an alliteration
D a symbol

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 The phrase babbling brook is an example of alliteration.

- A true
- B false

2 An old man, upon seeing the house he grew up in, is reminded of a special family event. The author can show the reader that memory using _____.

- A foreshadowing
- B a flashback
- C an alliteration
- D a symbol

3 A writer who likes to play with the sound of words is likely to use _____.

4 Two literary techniques that have to do with how an author uses time are:

B

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

B

5

7

- A true
- B false

A shadow appearing near a character doom.

- A rhymes with
- B is a flashback for
- C is an alliteration for
- D could be a symbol for

- A true
- B false

10

He didn't know that it would be the last time he would see her.

This is an example of _____.

- A foreshadowing
- B a flashback
- C an alliteration
- D a symbol