

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In a novel, two brothers argue over the best way to make money. One becomes a banker and the other a thief. Throughout the story, the brothers' lives are tangled up by the consequences of their choices. How might this conflict be resolved?

A The brothers stop talking to one another.
 B The banker is arrested for robbing the bank.
 C The thief robs his brother's bank.
 D The banker helps the thief change his life.

2 How might an author research and develop the plot of a story about a certain dance camp?

A By writing about the history of dance.
 B By listening to dance music.
 C By working with a professional ballerina.
 D By asking campers what they did at the camp.

3 A story might have two related plots that wind through the novel and cross each other.

4 The resolution of a conflict in the plot must satisfy the reader. The author has a successful novel if there are _____.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ library, the other wants to go to the football game. In this story, the conflict could be resolved by _____.

A having the friendship break up
 B describing the verbal argument
 C having one friend give in graciously
 D describing the football game

8 _____ about life in 2006.

A true
 B false

9 The rising action in a play about the president might include events surrounding a decision that must be made within 24 hours.

A true
 B false

10 Solving a crisis together might be the resolution to a story conflict in which a son and a father were so angry they weren't speaking to each other.

A true
 B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 In a novel, two brothers argue over the best way to make money. One becomes a banker and the other a thief. Throughout the story, the brothers' lives are tangled up by the consequences of their choices. How might this conflict be resolved?

A The brothers stop talking to one another.
 B The banker is arrested for robbing the bank.
 C The thief robs his brother's bank.
 D The banker helps the thief change his life.

2 How might an author research and develop the plot of a story about a certain dance camp?

A By writing about the history of dance.
 B By listening to dance music.
 C By working with a professional ballerina.
 D By asking campers what they did at the camp.

3 A story might have two related plots that wind through the novel and cross each other.

4 The resolution of a conflict in the plot must satisfy the reader. The author has a successful novel if there are _____.

PREVIEW
 Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 library, the other wants to go to the football game. In this story, the conflict could be resolved by _____.

A having the friendship break up
 B describing the verbal argument
 C having one friend give in graciously
 D describing the football game

8 _____ about life in 2006.

A true
 B false

9 The rising action in a play about the president might include events surrounding a decision that must be made within 24 hours.

A true
 B false

10 Solving a crisis together might be the resolution to a story conflict in which a son and a father were so angry they weren't speaking to each other.

A true
 B false

