

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1

Democracy was a form of government in Ancient Rome where privileged male citizens voted for laws and rules. What would be the opinion of a person who had voting privileges about this form of government?

- A Women can't vote, so it must not be fair.
- B It's fair because those who matter decide.
- C Poor people should be able to vote.
- D Only a king can create just laws.

2

There was a law in Ancient Rome that patricians were not able to marry plebeians.

It was the patricians' opinion that this law was fair.

- A true
- B false

3

Marcus loved to go to the Coliseum to watch exciting gladiator fights. Popular gladiators fought criminals without

4

In the feudal system, serfs were given protection in exchange for work. They were taxed heavily and had no rights.

5

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet humane. When Louis XVI was executed, crowds gathered and cheered.

7

The crowds celebrated because they thought the king was innocent.

- A true
- B false

making very little money. There were many accidents and deaths involving children.

The opinion of a parent of that time would be, accidents can happen anywhere and the extra money brought in by the children was needed.

- A true
- B false

9

Unions helped get better working conditions and pay for employees. Machines and working environments became safer. Employees worked less hours with better pay.

The company owners believed the company would make even more money with unions.

- A true
- B false

10

Megan talked to Zoe often during school with other girls. Several times she called Zoe to invite her over, but Zoe always had something else to do. Megan was frustrated.

Megan decided that the best course of action would be to ask the entire group over to make Zoe more comfortable.

- A true
- B false

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Democracy was a form of government in Ancient Rome where privileged male citizens voted for laws and rules. What would be the opinion of a person who had voting privileges about this form of government?

A Women can't vote, so it must not be fair.
 B It's fair because those who matter decide.
 C Poor people should be able to vote.
 D Only a king can create just laws.

2 There was a law in Ancient Rome that patricians were not able to marry plebeians.

It was the patricians' opinion that this law was fair.

A true
 B false

3 Marcus loved to go to the Coliseum to watch exciting gladiator fights. Popular gladiators fought criminals without

4 In the feudal system, serfs were given protection in exchange for work. They were taxed heavily and had no rights.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 humane. When Louis XVI was executed, crowds gathered and cheered.

The crowds celebrated because they thought the king was innocent.

A true
 B false

8 making very little money. There were many accidents and deaths involving children.

The opinion of a parent of that time would be, accidents can happen anywhere and the extra money brought in by the children was needed.

A true
 B false

9 Unions helped get better working conditions and pay for employees. Machines and working environments became safer. Employees worked less hours with better pay.

The company owners believed the company would make even more money with unions.

A true
 B false

10 Megan talked to Zoe often during school with other girls. Several times she called Zoe to invite her over, but Zoe always had something else to do. Megan was frustrated.

Megan decided that the best course of action would be to ask the entire group over to make Zoe more comfortable.

A true
 B false