

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which sentence shows the proper use of commas?

A Mice have sharp teeth, and sharp claws.
B Mice have sharp teeth, claws, and a tail.
C Mice have sharp teeth, claws and, a tail.
D Mice have sharp teeth, and claws.

2 Which sentence shows the proper use of commas?

A Nearly, 6000000 people live in this city.
B There are 30 million men, and women.
C Over 6,000,000 people live here.
D When 499, people enter someone will win.

3 The teacher said "Where will you look for the answer to your question?"
 Where should there be a comma in this

4 The student wanted to stay home from school, but his mother said he couldn't.
 This sentence has a properly used

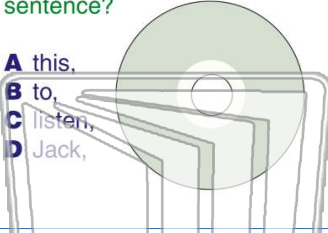

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Which comma is needed in this sentence?

A this.
B to,
C listen,
D Jack,

8 Which comma is needed in this sentence?

A Fisherman catch perch, bass, and trout.
B Dad, look what I caught.
C Fishing rods are flexible, to bend with the fish.
D Fishing, or catching fish, is a sport.

9 The author makes this promise to the reader: "My story will make sense and move along to a great conclusion."
 Why is there a colon after the word "reader" in this sentence?

A to indicate time
B as a formal introduction
C to show what will happen
D to introduce a list

10 The following states have coastlines on the Atlantic Ocean New York, New Jersey, Virginia, South Carolina, and Florida. Where would a colon be appropriate in this sentence?

A coastlines: C Ocean:
B states: D Atlantic:

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which sentence shows the proper use of commas?

A Mice have sharp teeth, and sharp claws.
B Mice have sharp teeth, claws, and a tail.
C Mice have sharp teeth, claws and, a tail.
D Mice have sharp teeth, and claws.

2 Which sentence shows the proper use of commas?

A Nearly, 6000000 people live in this city.
B There are 30 million men, and women.
C Over 6,000,000 people live here.
D When 499, people enter someone will win.

3 The teacher said "Where will you look for the answer to your question?"
 Where should there be a comma in this

4 The student wanted to stay home from school, but his mother said he couldn't.
 This sentence has a properly used

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Which comma is needed in this sentence?

A this.
B to,
C listen,
D Jack,

8 Which comma is needed in this sentence?

A Fisherman catch perch, bass, and trout.
B Dad, look what I caught.
C Fishing rods are flexible, to bend with the fish.
D Fishing, or catching fish, is a sport.

9 The author makes this promise to the reader: "My story will make sense and move along to a great conclusion."
 Why is there a colon after the word "reader" in this sentence?

A to indicate time
B as a formal introduction
C to show what will happen
D to introduce a list

10 The following states have coastlines on the Atlantic Ocean New York, New Jersey, Virginia, South Carolina, and Florida. Where would a colon be appropriate in this sentence?

A coastlines: C Ocean:
B states: D Atlantic: