

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?

The hiss of the snake got my dog's attention.

A hiss
B snake
C dog's
D attention

2 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?

The thunder's boom scared my little brother.

A thunder's
B boom
C scared
D brother

3 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?

Grandma looked up

4 When authors give human qualities to inanimate objects and to animals, it is called personification.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Personification.

The flag waved a happy "hello" to us as we entered school.

as, "It's raining cats and dogs."

True or false?

9 What is the meaning of this idiom?

Please lend me a hand.

A Please take a nap.
B Please ignore me.
C Please help me.
D Please give me a present.

10 What is the meaning of this idiom?

It is raining cats and dogs.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?
 The hiss of the snake got my dog's attention.

A hiss
 B snake
 C dog's
 D attention

2 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?
 The thunder's boom scared my little brother.

A thunder's
 B boom
 C scared
 D brother

3 Which word is an example of onomatopoeia?
 Grandma looked up

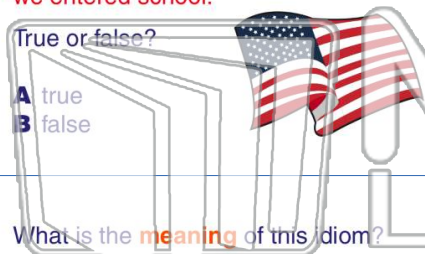

4 When authors give human qualities to inanimate objects and to animals, it is called personification.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 Personification
 The flag waved a happy "hello" to us as we entered school.

as, "It's raining cats and dogs."
 True or false?

9 What is the meaning of this idiom?
 Please lend me a hand.

A Please take a nap.
 B Please ignore me.
 C Please help me.
 D Please give me a present.

10 What is the meaning of this idiom?
 It is raining cats and dogs.

A It is not raining.
 B It is snowing.
 C It is raining lightly.
 D It is raining heavily.

