

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 If a town had 100 or more families, it then could have a _____.

- A college
- B grammar school
- C religious school
- D charter school

2 The first book for many colonial children was a thin piece of wood with a handle. Paper attached to the wood would have the alphabet or the Lord's Prayer on it. This was called a _____.

- A prayer book
- B wood book
- C hornbook
- D paddle book

3 "Scotch-Hoppers," a colonial game, is called _____ today.

4 It was common for colonial families to have many children.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____ made from reeds and grasses.

- A shingled
- B open
- C wood
- D thatched

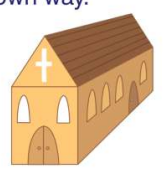

8 _____ provides light at night.

- A oil lamp
- B candle
- C light bulb
- D fire

9 The Puritans came to the New World in hopes that they could practice their religion in their own way.

- A true
- B false

10 During colonial times, boys learned skills like hunting, fishing, and woodworking. Girls learned skills like cooking, gardening, and _____.

- A printing
- B sewing
- C calculus
- D running a business

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 If a town had 100 or more families, it then could have a _____.

- A college
- B grammar school
- C religious school
- D charter school

2 The first book for many colonial children was a thin piece of wood with a handle. Paper attached to the wood would have the alphabet or the Lord's Prayer on it. This was called a _____.

- A prayer book
- B wood book
- C hornbook
- D paddle book

3 "Scotch-Hoppers," a colonial game, is called _____ today.

4 It was common for colonial families to have many children.

PREVIEW

Please Sign In or Sign Up to download the printable version of this worksheet

7 _____, made from reeds and grasses.

- A shingled
- B open
- C wood
- D thatched

_____ provides light at night.

- A oil lamp
- B candle
- C light bulb
- D fire

9 The Puritans came to the New World in hopes that they could practice their religion in their own way.

- A true
- B false

10 During colonial times, boys learned skills like hunting, fishing, and woodworking. Girls learned skills like cooking, gardening, and _____.

- A printing
- B sewing
- C calculus
- D running a business

